OF FILING

Arizona Corporation Commission

DOCKETED

DEC 23 2002

Qwest Corporation ("Qwest") hereby files notice of its December 20, 2002 letter to the Phone Company Management Group LLC regarding Phone Company's non-payment of its obligation to Qwest. The letter indicating Qwest's intent to disconnect unless full payment of the 1 outstanding balance and a deposit is made in the amount of $450,000.000. Qwest provides this

2 notice consistent with footnote 2 of the Arizona Corporation Commission Utility Division Staff
3 ("Staff") October 18, 2002 Complaint. Qwest further states that no disconnection will occur
4 until after January 7, 2003, the date set for the parties' procedural conference in the above-
5 captioned matter. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit A.

Dear Ms. Overland,

Re: 520-B11-5339-817,

This letter constitutes written notice of non-payment as required under your applicable contract.

This is to advise you that the required payment of $113,093.30 has not been received.

Failure to pay this obligation has left us with no alternative but to terminate all services currently associated with the account listed above. Disconnection will occur as of January 7, 2003 unless full payment and a deposit in the amount of $450,000.00 has been received by myself via overnight mail or wire transfer prior to this date.

Should disconnection occur, we will require full payment of the entire past due balance of $1,089,588.99 before reconnection of any services. Late payment charges may also apply per the terms of your contract. Additionally, other charges may apply to have the account re-established.

Please contact me at 515-558-1079 with any questions you may have regarding your account or this notification.

Regards,

Austin R Ross
